SPECIFIC RULES

CHAPEL

1. Every student is obliged to be present at all High School spiritual exercises.
2. Every student will be given the opportunity to serve Mass. The acolytes should be in the Sacristy five minutes before time.
3. Paduans entering the Chapel must be dressed decently. The wearing of "T" and sweatshirts is not permitted. Everyone ought to wear clothes befitting the presence of Christ.
4. Behaviour in Chapel should be such as befits the Presence of the Most Holy Sacrament; prayers should be said in unison and with piety and devotion; all liturgical actions, as genuflections, etc. should be strictly observed and performed correctly.

STUDY HALL

1. ORDER AND NEATNESS will be demanded everywhere. Articles not pertaining to classwork shall not be kept in or beneath the desks.
2. At the sound of the bell for a STUDY PERIOD everyone must come immediately to the Study Hall. Latecomers must report to the Professor or Prefect in charge.
3. No one is allowed to leave the Study Hall without first receiving permission from the one in charge.
4. Reading fiction, newspapers or writing letters during study periods will not be allowed.
5. Strict silence is to be observed in the Study Hall. Permission to leave one's place must be had from the one in charge.
6. Wastebaskets are to be used for the disposal of waste paper and other refuse.

In the absence of the Rev. Prefect the General Prefect or his assistant is in full charge and is obliged to enforce all the above rules.

CLASSROOMS

1. Order and cleanliness are requisites in every classroom.
2. Strict silence must be observed from the moment the signal for class is heard.
3. Between classes order is to be maintained and no one is allowed to leave the classroom without the permission of the class prefect.
4. If the professor does not appear five minutes after the class signal has sounded the class prefect shall notify Fr. Rector.
5. Class prefects are to enforce the above rules. All transgressions are to be reported to the proper authorities.

LIBRARY

1. The students and Faculty members may use the Library according to the specific rules (q.v.) of the library.
2. The Library with its collections of books should be a place of study and mental recreation. Therefore SILENCE, as in the study hall, is to be observed.
3. The Library will be open practically during all recreation periods for your benefit and will be in charge by one of the staff librarians who will keep order and may expel any individual who proves himself a nuisance.
4. Any of the books, except those marked REFERENCE (symbol "R") may be taken out for a period of two weeks after they have been duly charged out with the staff librarian at the desk.

5. Books marked REFERENCE are to be used only in the library. The students are not allowed in the Faculty Dept. nor are they allowed to borrow any of the books therein unless by recommendation of a Faculty member. Books on the restricted shelves (glass cases) can be taken out by permission of the Rev. Librarian.
6. Books must be returned (to the charging desk) at the time designated. Otherwise a fine will be charged for negligence in this respect. A book can be renewed after a lapse of two days, provided it is not in demand because of class assignments.
7. MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS are put in the library for the use of all and because of their current nature do not circulate. However, magazines, of the past month or week may be taken out after being duly charged out with the staff librarian.
8. The books and periodicals are school property. Hence, any mutilation or loss shall be handled in the same way as destruction of other school property.
9. There is to be no eating of any kind in the library lest the books be soiled.
10. The Rev. Librarian may curtail library privileges if he deems it necessary.

DINING HALL

1. All rules of etiquette must be observed. Politeness and good breeding should be in evidence in each of the students actions during meals.
2. Silence is to be observed while entering the refectory. Everyone is to proceed to his appointed place and wait in silence until Grace is said.
3. After Grace all are to remain standing until the bell is sounded.
4. On days when reading is assigned at meal time every one should maintain strict silence.

5. No one is allowed to leave the dinning hall without permission of the one in charge.
6. The respective prefects are obliged to enforce the above rules.

DORMITORY RULES

1. Everyone should arise immediately after hearing the awakening bell.
2. Necessary toilet needs should be taken care of without crowding or arguing.
3. Only necessary toilet articles should be kept in the bathroom to avoid overcrowding.
4. Dressing and undressing should be done in the bathroom or space adjacent to the clothes closet. All discarded clothing should be hung up on their respective hangars.
5. Sitting on the beds, undressing in them or using them for any other purpose than sleeping is forbidden.
6. No one is allowed out of bed before the awakening signal is heard. Special ~~per~~ mission is granted to those acting as acolytes for the early Masses.
7. No one is permitted to enter any dormitory but his own. In time of need special permission will be granted.
8. Silence is to be observed in the dormitories at all times. This rule is not in effect when the dormitories are open for cleaning purposes.
9. No Visitors are allowed in the dormitories without permission from the Rector or the Prefect.

RECREATION

1. Time assigned for recreation should be spent in a manner beneficial to the health.

2. Each and every student should take part in all intramural athletic activities unless this is against the doctor's orders.
3. Recreation ends with the sound of the signal calling the students to the next place of assembly.

RECREATION ROOM

1. The recreation room is the students' parlor and should be considered as such.
2. Games, playtables and other recreational facilities are there for the students' enjoyment and use. They are to be handled with the utmost care. Breakage must be reported.
3. The radio is in the recreation room for the students' enjoyment. Private radios are not allowed.

SWIMMING POOL

1. The swimming pool is to be used only during the times specified.
2. A shower should be taken before entering the pool.
3. Washing or soaping in the pool is^S forbidden.
4. Tank trunks must be used in the pool.
5. The pipes around the pool should not be used for any other than their original purpose. Swinging or hanging on them is forbidden.
